Larry Anderson addressed the Board of Supervisors regarding the posting of weight limit signs on Municipal Drive as it has negatively impacted his business at Pioneer Grocery. He stated that without the truck traffic his business may not survive. He asked for a compromise to allow some truck traffic. Harry clarified that trucks under the weight limit are not restricted and overweight trucks are still able to pull directly into his parking area without using the street. Local contractor John Higgins sent a memo to all his drivers informing them not to travel on Municipal Drive. Harry stated that he personally contacted Mr. Higgins to clarify that light trucks are allowed but if Mr. Higgins tells his drivers they are not allowed to stop there, that is not up to us. Paul stated that the restriction was placed to stop the continuous damage to the roadway and that the Board of Supervisors would discuss the matter and get back to Mr. Anderson.
