

Greene Co. Fair Board

Monday April 4, 2022

Attendance: Eric Marshall, Larry Marshall, Herb Stephenson, Barry Moore, Mike Belding, Betsy McClure, Jeff Lash, Carol Adamson. Audience: Bud Moore, Jim Couell, Tom Brookover, Tammy Brookover, George Scull

Minutes: President Eric Marshall called the meeting to order at 6:34 pm.

Betsy McClure moved Jeff Lash seconded to approve the minutes as read all were in favor the motion carried.

Treasurer's Report:

Ms Stephenson presented a Profit & Loss report and a Summary Balance Sheet Ms Adamson moved Mr. J. Lash seconded to approve the treasurer's report all were in favor the motion carried.

Old Business:

Mr. M. Belding, moved seconded by Mr. L. Marshall to have Ms Stephenson get a Wednesday night room for the Fair Queen at the State Contest in Hershey with discretion on need all approved the motion carried.

After much discussion Ms Adamson moved Mr. J. Lash seconded the release of animals by 6:00 am on Sunday with the exception of animals going to slaughter Ms Stephenson will make an effort to get checks to the exhibitors; however, some may have to be mailed. All approved the motion carried.

Ms McClure moved seconded by Mr. M. Belding to make Tammy Brookover Leadline Coordinator and perhaps Janet Mawhinney would be a judge all approved motion carried.

Mr. L. Marshall gave the board a run down on many contracts that are finished like Pepsi, Derno Derby, Truck & Tractor Pulling, Wood Carver, Fair Queen with a few that ~~are~~ still being worked on like Sound, Kids Day, Cornerstone Care, Patriotic Ban Mr. Marshall believes we are 95% done.

New Business:

Mr. Belding said BMX is looking for a tract for bicycling Mr. Lash said he and George Scull talked with Dan Wagner for an educational cooking demo.

Mr. J. Couell ask for Color Coded tickets for Farm Bureau's Help.

Mr. Couell said he has a man to roll the arena for less dust in the area. Mr. Belding motion seconded by Mr. Adamson all approved the motion carried

President Marshall went over the By-laws which had not been visited since the mid 90's. These By-laws will be revisited two more times before permanent changes are made.

Mr. Belding moved to adjourn Mr. Adamson seconded all in favor motion passed.

Next meeting May 2, 2022

Respectfully Submitted
Loral Adamson