

Greene Co Fair Board
Monday July 18, 2022

Attendance: Eric Marshall, Dale Stephenson, Larry Marshall, Betsy McClure, Mike Belding, Barry Moore, Jeff Lash, Carol Adamson.
Audience: Jim Couell, George Scull, Lew Crouse, Pam Wright, Janet Mawhinney, Ami Cree, Cassie Edgreen, Helen Mooney, Melodie Longstreth, Tammy Brookover.

President Eric Marshall called the meeting to order at 6:32 pm. Jeff Lash moved seconded by Mike Belding to accept the minutes as read motion carried. Dale Stephenson gave the treasurer report. Carol Adamson moved seconded by Jeff Lash to accept the report all approved.

President Marshall read the By-laws for the final time. Mike Belding moved Jeff Lash seconded the new By-laws all approved.

Old Business: Cassie Edgreen addressed the board over lead-line lambs having to stay at the fair til Sunday morning. President Marshall, Commissioner McClure, ^{2nd} Commissioner Belding all said it was an over-sight. Mike Belding moved seconded by Betsy McClure to allow lead-line lambs with proper health papers to leave the fairgrounds after the lead-line show all approved. Tammy Brookover explained her plans for lead-line, then ask to be excused for Jacktown. Melodie Longstreth explained plans for Fair Queen Contest. Lala Energy will give the crown. There will be a meet^{2nd} greet on Monday and the State Queen will attend. George Scull gave Carol Adamson the number for Dan Wagner to confirm his plans.

New Business: Larry Marshall discussed how things were in order such as: Pepsi, all spaces filled, Middtown Ross and Knight's were contacted for equipment.

Commissioner McClure said the Master Gardeners would need mulch to do flower beds on the grounds. Deb Stephenson said the mulch has always been donated. Commissioner McClure asks if the 4' x 8' sign for the goat²nd rabbit building will be completed. Ms Stephenson said this will be done by fair. Melodie Longditch expressed concern over the number of rabbits being shown at the fair. No change made.

Janet Mawhinney expressed her concern over changes in lead-line and how she and Mike had paid for previous shows.

Commissioner Belding said he wanted to add people to the board. With new By-laws these people can be added. Mike Belding put in Pam Wright, Betsy McClure put in James Cowell, Deb Stephenson put in Tad Hoy, Carol Adamson put in Lewis Crouse. After the vote the new board members will be Pam Wright, James Cowell²nd Lewis Crouse.

Deb Stephenson move to adjourn seconded by Jeff Lash

Meeting Adjourned

Respectfully Submitted

Carol Adamson